Product Description

The grand presence of this stunning micro marble surround is unrivalled. With its fine detailing and angled stepped design the Vitalia is an uncompromising and stylish feature for any interior.

The Vitalia's foursquare boldness is offset by the fine detailing of the inward-stepping framework which draws the eye gently to the fire within. The broader proportions of this surround give you the freedom to opt for the greater impact of a wide screen format gas fire, which the Vitalia is comfortably able to accommodate.
