Product Description

Delivering elegance, style and sophistication, the Gazco Chesterfield 5 Electric Stove breathes both designer looks and traditional aesthetics in one. For unparalleled authenticity, Chesterfield 5 electric stoves are made with the same cast iron and heavy gauge steel construction used in our wood burning and gas versions, while inside, immersive realistic flame and ember visuals complete the experience.

For truly mesmerising visuals, the Chesterfield 5's state of the art Chromalight® technology that projects the flame visuals between remarkably realistic log effects, whilst also illuminating them from above and below with a choice of 13 different vibrant colours to suit your room and vibe. For effortless ambience, the Thermostatic Eco Remote Control puts everything at your fingertips, so you can enjoy the spectacle from a distance, with or without the heat.

The Chesterfield 5 is available in gas, wood burning and multi-fuel models.
